

As the Transforming the Trent Valley Landscape Partnership scheme ends its fifth year, we look back at some of its outstanding achievements.

Transforming the Trent Valley

456 volunteers engaged over 1,785 volunteer days

54 grants awarding
£100,000

2 new sculptures

35 access points improved

27 infrastructure upgrades

203 training activities including Trent Talks

852 Nature Packs distributed to low-income families

2,594 children engaged

41 new interpretation displays

3 touring exhibitions

153 community groups engaged

48 Events to promote walking, paddling & cycling

11 new circular walks

15 new sites to connect people with the valley

£562,000 Biodiversity Offsetting secured

12 baseline surveys conducted
17,996 wildlife records taken

129ha habitat restored or enhanced
1.5km connected habitat created

18.85km of access improved for walking & cycling

15 City & Guild certificates

70 John Muir Awards

31 ponds & scrapes created

8 heritage assets identified for designation enhancement

17 pillboxes converted for wildlife & people

27km access improved for paddling

23 conservation requirements completed

207 heritage assets surveyed and recorded

54 advisory visits made to custodians of heritage assets

15 heritage talks & walks

2km river restored benefitting 72km of river catchment